Welcome to SUMMER READING

at The New York Public Library

Get in the Game: Read! Team up with the Library this summer to learn new skills and ideas while having fun with great books.

This booklet contains a list of reading suggestions for all ages, from babies to adults. Flip to the back for tips on how to find books, plus a calendar and book log to keep you reading throughout the summer.

Summer Reading is just the beginning! The Library also offers an array of free programs and activities for all ages—from story times to workshops and more. Visit your local branch for programs and other resources that encourage essential literacy skills and a lifelong love of books and reading.

Talk to your librarian to find out more, or visit:

READING TIPS FOR ALL AGES

Reading is a key to success, and it's never too early nor too late to start! Use these tips to get you and your family reading:

- Create time to read together, whether it's reading aloud together or reading independently in the same space.
- Talk to each other about what everyone is reading.
- Read in front of younger family members to encourage positive reading behavior.
- Find favorites! Discovering books you love makes reading fun and engaging.

HOW TO FIND BOOKS

Here's an easy way to find books: Match the letters or numbers (such as J FIC D or J 818 G) on the book list to the spines of books on the shelf.

FICTION: In alphabetical order by the author's last name. Easy Reader, Young Reader, and graphic novels may be shelved separately.

NONFICTION: Organized by numbers and letters (such as J 609.22 T).

BIOGRAPHY: Arranged by the last name of the person the book is about, then alphabetically by the author's last name (J B Carson L, for example).

Some titles on our book list are also available in other formats. For EAUD and EBK, visit nypl.org/ebooks and search by title. BR and DB are available at NYPL's Andrew Heiskell Braille and Talking Book Library in Manhattan. For more, visit: nypl.org/talkingbooks

Letters & Abbreviations:
